ABOUT ABORIGINAL HEAD START

The Aboriginal Head Start Initiative is a federally funded early intervention strategy which addresses the needs of young Aboriginal children living in urban centres and in large Northern communities.

It is a comprehensive program designed to meet the spiritual, emotional, intellectual and physical needs of the child.

Aboriginal Head Start will focus on locally controlled and administered Aboriginal non-profit organizations who see the parent/caregiver as the natural advocate of the child and whose primary concern is the health and well-being of Aboriginal children.

ABORIGINAL HEAD START MANDATE

The mandate of Aboriginal Head Start is to:

- Foster the spiritual, emotional, intellectual and physical growth of each child.
- Foster a desire in the child for life-long learning.
- Support parents and guardians as the prime teachers and caregivers of their children, making sure parents/caregivers play a key role in the planning, development, operation and evaluation of the program.
- Recognize and support extended families in teaching and caring for children.
- Make sure the local Aboriginal community is involved in the planning, development, operation and evaluation of the program.
- Make sure that the initiative works with and is supported by other community programs and services.
- Ensure the human and financial resources are used in the best way possible to produce positive outcomes and experiences for Aboriginal children, parents, families and communities.
